Pioneers Honored

The City of Austin Parks and Recreation Department, producers of "Paint Your Wagon," join the cast and crew in saluting the spirit of adventure which opened the western frontier and the enterprising men and women who followed to develop the new lands into the great nation whose bicentennial we are about to celebrate.
