

Get Ready for Legally Blond!

How to Prepare

- Scout the Location: Visit the venue ahead of time to get familiar with the layout.
- Have a Conversation: Talk to your child or family member about what to expect.
- Set Expectations: Discuss appropriate behavior for a public event.
- Support from ACES: We'll be there to help with some free items if needed.

What to Expect

- Cool Down Area: A dedicated air-conditioned space for anyone feeling overwhelmed or overstimulated during the performance.
- Sensory-Friendly Environment: Soft lighting in the sensory room, white noise machines to cancel out external noise, and live streaming of the performance on a TV monitor so you won't miss a thing.
- Sensory Tools: We'll have sensory toys, fidgets, bean bag chairs, and sensory tiles on the floor.
- Reserved Seating: Lawn seating near the sensory room will be reserved for our guests.

What to Bring

- Arrive Early: Get a good spot by arriving early.
- Comfort Items: Bring a blanket or soft material to sit on, and any toys or 'loveys' that help calm.
- Noise Control: If appropriate, bring noise-canceling headphones.
- Refreshments: Bring preferred drinks (ideally water) and snacks.
